Reporting Location

Cupertino OES
Start a check-in sheet using the ICS 211B Sign-in Sheet (if you have one) or a blank sheet of paper with these columns:

- Name
- Address
- Signature
- DSW Class (CERT, MRC, CARES, other)
- Time IN
- Time OUT (filled in if told to shut down operations)

1. Sign yourself in.

Start an activity log using the ICS 214a (if you have one) or a blank sheet of paper. Record significant events and activities only.

1. When other volunteers arrive, have them sign in.

1. When other residents arrive, record their report and/or observations. Include their name and contact information.

1. Ask other volunteers to help with the sign-in or status report collection activities.

1. Attempt to contact the DOC by cell phone or wait for a CARES member to arrive. Once voice communications is established by either means, proceed to the Level 2 checklist.

1. If no communications is established with the DOC, remain at Level 1.

1. If you have to leave, or if you have not received any reports for 10-15 minutes (use your own judgement),

   a. Leave a note at the lockbox or the ARK when you arrived and left (name, time, date). Tape or attach this note to the instruction plaque on the ARK or fence by the lockbox.

   b. Drop off anything that you wrote down or collected from anyone else at the City Hall Reception Desk and address it to “Citizen Corps Coordinator” during the next business day.
