Cupertino Building Permits
To Go Paperless
Cupertino Community Development, Building Division is “taking the paper out of the plan” beginning this summer. This move eliminates the need for architects, contractors, or designers to haul large rolls of paper plans to City Hall, as they will be able to submit the plans for review online through a web application.

This new service allows all relevant people to review plans simultaneously. Architects, contractors and engineers will be able to access submitted plans, comment and act on them through a password-protected web-based system. In February 2012, Council unanimously voted to propel Cupertino into the 21st century and supported the eight month research process that led the City to conclude that paperless was the way to go.

Benefits of paperless building plans include: the ability for various offices to work on the plans simultaneously, ability to track and see plans as they move through the approval process and transparency in the process of building plan review. We will work with customers to reduce any initial growing pains. Once the word spreads, users will see vast improvements over the outdated system we’ve had since 1998,” said Aarti Shrivastava, Director of Community Development.

Stevens Creek Trail Joint Cities Feasibility Study

The cities of Cupertino, Sunnyvale, Mountain View, and Los Altos invites interested citizens to apply for a Citizens Working Group position to assist agency staff, a consultant team, and policy representatives in preparing a feasibility study of trail development in the Stevens Creek Corridor with the intent of connecting completed or planned trail segments in Cupertino and Mountain View. If interested, please submit an application to the City of Sunnyvale Department of Public Works by Friday, June 7, 2013 at 5 pm. More information and application is available at: sunnyvale.ca.gov/Departments/PublicWorks/StevensCreekTrailJointCitiesFeasibilityStudy.aspx

Summer Concert Series 2013

General Municipal Election Date Change
On February 19, 2013 the City Council of the City of Cupertino adopted Ordinance No. 13-2106 changing the date of the City’s general municipal election from November odd-year to November even-year. On April 23, 2013 the Santa Clara County Board of Supervisors approved City of Cupertino Ordinance No. 13-2106.

Beginning November 2014, the City of Cupertino General Municipal Election will be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November of even-numbered years.

The reasons for this change are:
• The November date will allow the City of Cupertino to consolidate its election with the Statewide General Election which is held on the same date therefore resulting in a substantial cost savings.
• A majority of local governments in Santa Clara County would share the same election date.

The next City of Cupertino General Municipal Election will be held on November 4, 2014. The terms of office of current City Council members will be extended twelve months to coincide with November 2014 and 2016 general municipal elections. Questions can be directed to the City Clerk’s Department at 408.777.3223 or contact the City Clerk at graces@cupertino.org.

Humane Society FREE Pet Adoption

Pool and Water Safety

Summer is here and we will all be looking forward to a dip in the pool or ocean. Now is the time to start thinking about your safety and the safety of your children. Around a pool or spa apply these simple steps to save lives.

Never leave a child unattended in a pool or spa and always watch your child when he or she is in or near water

- Watch a child closely around the pool or spa. If a child is missing, look in the pool or spa first.
- Learn and teach children basic water safety tips. Have a set of rules for around the pool such as no running, no diving in the shallow end, no fighting or holding others under the water.
- Keep children away from pool drains, pipes and other openings to avoid entrapments where they can get caught and drown.
- Have a telephone close by when you or your family is using a pool or spa so you can call 911 if needed.
- Learn how to swim and teach your child how to swim. There are good swim schools and programs available in Cupertino.
- Learn to perform the basics of life-saving and CPR on children and adults, and update those skills regularly.
- Having the appropriate equipment for your pool or spa such as a four-feet or taller fence with a self-closing and self-latching gate. Install and use a lockable safety cover on your spa. Have a life rings and reaching poles easily available for non-swimmers and know how to use them.
- Ensure any pool and spa you use has compliant drain covers, and ask your pool service provider if you do not know
- Maintain protective pool and spa covers in good working order.
- Consider using a surface wave or underwater alarm.
- In public pools, is there a lifeguard at the pool or spa to watch children and adults? In the ocean or at lakes, the drowning danger is amplified by the fact that there are often significant waves or undercurrents. Here are a few additional safety tips to remember.
- Make sure you are within easy reach of small children who cannot swim. They can quickly get swept away and drown if a wave or undercurrent knocks them down. Wearing a life preserver is advised for non-swimmers.

If available, note the location of the nearest lifeguard station to call for help if needed.
- Don’t swim out beyond the distance that you are confident you can swim back without a life preserver or flotation device.
- Always make sure you tell someone where you are going, whether in the water or not, at the beach or lake.
- Watch for signs of hypothermia such as blue lips, uncontrolled shivering, or altered mental state, especially in children. Get the victim out of the water and use a blanket or towel to warm them.
- Wear a waterproof sunscreen to prevent sunburn with an SPF appropriate for the length of time you plan on being in the sun and the degree of protection desired. Consult your dermatologist for their recommendation for your skin type.

From the good folks on the Cupertino Citizen Corps, have a safe and fun time swimming this summer.

Cupertino used to have some grand Victorian-style estates in the old days. Land and labor were inexpensive and there was lots of lumber to be had, thanks to the extensive forests in our nearby mountains.

Sadly, those old homes decorated with gingerbread trim are gone... victims of rampant subdivision development after WWII. Some of the old Victorians have survived in San Jose, Los Gatos, Saratoga and other nearby communities and occasionally there are home tours where folks can wander through these grand old “ladies” and marvel at the moldings, pocket doors, original glass and features that most modern homes do not have.

Every year in Sutter Creek, in the Gold Country, the AAUW holds its annual home tour - usually a mix of old classic homes and newer estates - some with quite a bit of acreage, wine cellars, high tech gadgetry, bocce ball courts, pools and so on. It’s a fun way to spend a weekend and the Gold Country in the spring is absolutely lovely - rolling green hills, wildflowers and usually great weather.

This story actually comes from an experience in Sutter Creek. Quite a few years ago I was invited to go see “Chip’s house” after completing a day of home touring with a cousin. On a side street just outside of town, a big Victorian home came into view and a friend introduced us to a fellow who spent most of the last 20+ years moving and restoring a huge old Victorian he and his wife purchased near Azusa in Southern California. The house was dismantled in 1980 and moved in pieces, on two trucks, to a lot they purchased in Sutter Creek. The house - when I first saw it in the 1990’s - had been put back together but the interior was years from being completed. There was a staircase that went to the 2nd floor and some interior framing, but the whole project looked like it would take an army of carpenters and another few decades to complete. Chip still lived in southern California - in Covina - and made the 800 mile round trip to Sutter Creek an astounding 35 times a year to work on the old Victorian.

The house is 3,000 square feet with a full basement and attic and was originally built in the 1890’s. It was a wreck when Chip and his wife bought it for $51,000. The plan evolved to move it and restore it and each of their children picked out the room they wanted when the project would be completed. (The children are now grown and all on their own and probably will never live in the house)

So now it’s 2013 and Chip has been working on the house for over 30 years. All the ladies in our home tour group finished the day by trooping up to see how the house was coming along. There was landscaping - lawn, bushes, trees and the property now had a genteel air - the plantings went in fairly recently and dressed the property up quite a bit. Entering the house, I was curious and a little apprehensive... but things looked different! The staircase was in a different position and the downstairs walls had been moved about. The restoration was never intended to make it exactly like it was in the 1890’s, but very close... and now there were interior walls and rooms with doors and transoms, working bathrooms (only two for this big home - we forgot to count all the bedrooms) and a working kitchen with huge antique cabinets. A large old fashioned stove stood on one wall in the downstairs kitchen, with a big pot of something cooking and filling the house with great smells.

Chip was as enthusiastic as ever about this 30+ year project. Two of his buddies were helping that day and we got the grand tour. I took a couple of decades off my previous assessment. We all might see this wonderful old house completely finished in the not too distant future. There is a contractor helping now and that has added a lot of motivation to the project. The house occasionally has informal get-togethers with rollicking music, family and guests who appreciate Chip and his wife’s efforts to give this architectural gem a 2nd lease on life.

And speaking of giving old homes a second lease on life, Cupertino has its own hero who saved an old house many years ago. The Montgomery house stood on Stevens Creek Blvd. - it was the second home built by Alexander Montgomery on his property - pictures of the first home he built in the late 1800’s hang in the Cupertino Museum. The second home Montgomery built was a different style than the first, but after many years it was due to be torn down in the late 1980’s even though in its day it had been quite a showplace.

Enter Bobby Bell - a man with a mission. Bobby was going to move into an old house on Stevens Creek Blvd., but just before moving in, the house burned down. Then someone offered him the aging Montgomery house. Initially he didn’t want it but was talked into it taking it for $25 and was given some funds to move it. The house was a large two story building - the interior had been damaged by boys running motorcycles up and down the stairs. Bobby had the house cut up in 3 pieces. Then he started arranging to have stop lights moved, power turned off, a huge truck to haul the house parts... loaded up and headed down Stevens Creek Blvd. in the middle of the night. Plans went awry, of course, and quite a few mishaps later and in the wee hours of the morning, the truck and all the crew attending to

Compost with Success

Over one third of the waste entering landfills is organic material, with food comprising 15% of the total waste stream. Composting is a beneficial option to reduce the volume of wasted organic material, and it produces a valuable product that enhances soil and benefits new growth. Rotting organic matter turns into methane, a very potent greenhouse gas. What can you do to help our environment? Place all food scraps directly into your yard waste cart, or wrap them in newspaper or a paper bag first. The City provides free compost to its residents from the last weekend in March through October 19 on Fridays and Saturdays from 8:30 am – 11 am at 12100 Stevens Canyon Road.

For the best gardening results, mix compost with 50% dirt. Compost is intended as an amendment to the soil; unblended compost is nutrient-rich and may burn plant roots and lawn if applied directly. The free compost comes from Cupertino’s food and yard waste collection program through Recology and is processed at South Valley Organics, Inc. through a strict quality assurance program. For more information please contact Environmental Programs at environmental@cupertino.org 408.777.3354.

Cupertino Will Become a Clean Zone - No Butts about it

Cupertino’s parking lots, curbs and creeks have been negatively impacted by litter. To prepare for the new state mandate requiring the City to reduce 100% of its litter by July 1, 2022, and to reduce 40% of the litter by July 1, 2014, anyone caught littering in Cupertino will be cited and fined a minimum of $100 for a first-time litter violation. Locally and nationwide, cigarette butts are the number one littered item. The problem is that litter doesn’t stay in one place. When it lands on the ground, if not swept up or cleaned up, litter may be carried by wind or rain to stormdrain inlets that are designed to divert rain to local creeks to prevent flooding. When litter enters the drainage system it has begun its journey, first to our creeks, then to the Bay and on to the ocean. Please do your part. NEVER litter our environment. When safe to do so, pick up litter and properly dispose of it and consider joining an on-land or creek cleanup event. Visit www.cleanacreek.org to find local events.

What Do You Do with Household Hazardous Waste?

Contact Waste Management (WM) At-Your-Door service to collect your household hazardous waste. An appointment for collection can be made at www.wmatyourdoor.com or by calling 800.449.7587.

Help Water Flow

Keeping debris out of creeks helps water flow. Creeks are a valuable natural resource that support sensitive wildlife and ecosystems and also serve as natural drainage systems that carry storm water away from homes, roads and businesses safely to the bay. For our waterways to carry runoff during heavy rainfall, it is important to keep creeks free of trash and debris, which can impede the flow of water and cause flooding. While most people realize trash and chemicals should not go into a creek, many don’t know that yard waste, leaves and soil also pollute a creek and can obstruct water flow, resulting in flooding and erosion.

Use Reusable Bags in Cupertino

Starting October 1, 2013 retail stores in Cupertino will no longer be allowed to distribute disposable, thin plastic carryout bags. Recycled paper bags may be distributed by retailers with a minimum charge of ten cents per bag. This bag charge will increase to twenty-five cents on January 1, 2015. For additional information, please visit www.cupertino.org/reusebags or call 408.777.3354. Free reusable bags are available at the Cupertino City Hall for Cupertino residents.
Exercise Caution When Choosing Pesticides

With spring comes new life and new opportunities to make better decisions for your garden and the environment. With all the new growth, pests are not far behind. Please make careful choices when purchasing pest control products.

After the highly publicized voluntary recalls of diazinon and chlorpyrifos (Dursban) as home and garden pesticides, consumers might think that most products on store shelves are safer. But this is not the case. A new class of pesticides has become prominent: pyrethroids. Pyrethroids are designed to kill a wide variety of pests, such as lawn grubs and ants. But pyrethroids are highly toxic to beneficial insects like ladybugs, earthworms, and lacewings, which help to keep problem pests in-check. Once these beneficial insects and the natural checks and balances they provide have been eliminated, pests are free to multiply. Pyrethroids are also priority pesticides of concern because they have been linked to widespread toxicity in California surface waters.

Garden pesticides are a particular problem when it comes to stormwater pollution. Once they are washed away by rain and watering, pesticides flow into storm drains, polluting local creeks and the Bay, and harming fish and other aquatic life. Tips to avoid toxic choices while maintaining beautiful yards and gardens are:

- Read labels. The word “pyrethroid” may not appear on a label, but look for these active ingredients: permethrin, bifenthrin, cyfluthrin, cypermethrin, deltamethrin, lambda-cyhalothrin, and tralomethrin. Active ingredient names ending in “-thrin” are usually pyrethroids. Download a free pocket guide that gives examples of products without pyrethroids at www.ourwaterourworld.org.
- When shopping, seek the least toxic products. Look for shelf signs with the Our Water, Our World name and logo, which draw attention to safer choices. Participating stores include Orchard Supply Hardware, Ace Hardware, Home Depot, Summerwinds and Yamagami’s Nursery.

Neighborhood Block Leaders Honored; Program Welcomes New Leaders

Last May, 39 residents were recognized for their volunteer efforts for one, five and 10 years at the Annual Block Leader Recognition Dinner. Each neighborhood leader organized a block party, or neighborhood meeting, emergency training, or other activity to get the neighbors acquainted. The Cupertino Block Leader Program was created in 2002 to improve communication, increase public safety, and enhance cultural understanding in the neighborhoods. 360 residents currently volunteer as block leaders and block leader sets the number of homes to connect, which is on average is 20.

In addition to learning how to connect neighbors, block leaders meet two times a year for updates and communication training – and to gain tips from more experienced peers. Leaders receive timely and pertinent information from the city, such as notices about local building activities and new Citywide programs, and detailed guidebooks to help them get started. As a first event, new block leaders typically plan a neighborhood block party. And the warm summer months ahead are the most popular time of year to get neighbors together. For tips on how to plan a block party and to apply for a party online, visit: www.cupertino.org/blockparty.

If you would like to help organize your neighborhood as a block leader, or co-leader, or to find out if there is a block leader in your neighborhood, contact Laura D. Lee at communityrelations@cupertino.org, or call 408.777.3331.

lights, power, traffic, etc. made it across the narrow bridge over Stevens Creek at the bottom of the dip (by the Blue Pheasant Restaurant). Then they inched up the hill. At the old Cupertino Road turnoff, the truck groaned around the sharp turn, slid backwards and the back end went up the roadside bank. Finally at 9 am the following morning the truck made it around the hairpin turn, crawled up the hill and slowly deposited the house parts on a bare lot. A year later the house was rebuilt and still stands today – a beautiful and proud reminder of Cupertino’s past. No one in Cupertino has ever attempted to move a house of that size – before or since. The entire tale of the Montgomery house move would make fascinating reading and a testimony to one man’s dream and determination to save a grand old house. Kudos and many thanks to Bobby Bell and his wife Rita.
